Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
1 Peter 1:1 To those who are elect exiles of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, [2] according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in the sanctification of the Spirit, for obedience to Jesus Christ and for sprinkling with his blood: May grace and peace be multiplied to you. 5:12 By Silvanus, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, exhorting and declaring that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it.	Grace and peace of the Triune God abound to the elect people living in exile. I. The author (1a) II. The recipients (1b) III. The Trinitarian work in the elect (2) Memory verses for 2026- Ephesians 4:1–3 [1] I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you To walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, [2] with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, [3] eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Sermon Application Questions	Prayer Requests
1. 1 Peter are the words of the Good Shepherd for his sheep given through his apostle, Peter. What comfort is there for you that Jesus speaks to you through this particular apostle?	This week our family will lift up requests for:
2. The "elect exiles" - or the chosen rejected - is one of the most comprehensive identities of God's people this side of glory. In what ways are you convicted that you don't experience exile (rejected by or look different than the world)? In what ways are you comforted that you are elect (accepted by God)?	This week our family will praise the Lord for:
3. A full understanding of sanctification is that we have been set apart (already) so that we may be conformed to the will, desire, and image of Jesus (ongoing). How would seeing only one part affect how we live?	HFG Notes & Actions:
4. Look up the words to the hymn, "Turn Your Eyes Upon Jesus." How are these words (if pressed for time, just the Chorus) a helpful reminder for us living in a foreign land and waiting for our true home?	Next HFG meeting is:
