Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Luke 6:37 “Judge not, and you will not be judged; condemn not, and you will not be condemned; forgive, and you will be forgiven; [38] give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you.” [39] He also told them a parable: “Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? [40] A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher. [41] Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? [42] How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye,’ when you yourself do not see the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.	I. What kind of judging is Jesus talking about? II. How does our own sin blind us? III. How do we tell what’s a log and what’s a speck? IV. What to do about a log or a speck? Memory verse for 2017- Isaiah 48:17 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go.

Sermon Application Questions

Prayer Requests

1. In what situations are we commanded to make judgments?

This week our family will lift up requests for:

2. Why is it wrong and impossible to judge someone else's motives according to 1 Corinthians 4:3-5

[3] But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by any human court. In fact, I do not even judge myself. [4] For I am not aware of anything against myself, but I am not thereby acquitted. It is the Lord who judges me. [5] Therefore do not pronounce judgment before the time, before the Lord comes, who will bring to light the things now hidden in darkness and will disclose the purposes of the heart. Then each one will receive his commendation from God.

This week our family will praise the Lord for:

3. How do we overcome our blindness to certain sins in our lives?

HFG Notes & Actions:

4. What makes a log a log and a speck a speck, and why do we get so confused about it?

Next HFG meeting is:
