Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Luke 5:27 After this he went out and saw a tax collector named Levi, sitting at the tax booth. And he said to him, "Follow me." [28] And leaving everything, he rose and followed him. [29] And Levi made him a great feast in his house, and there was a large company of tax collectors and others reclining at table with them. [30] And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled at his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?" [31] And Jesus answered them, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. [32] I have not come to call the righteous but sinners to repentance."	Jesus calls sinners to the delight of some and the scorn of others. <ul style="list-style-type: none">I. Sermon Application Questions

Prayer Requests

1. Why were tax collectors like Levy so despised in the first century?

This week our family will lift up requests for:

2. What is Jesus mission statement in this text?

3. How does this statement from the Westminster Shorter Catechism relate with the passage?

Effectual calling is the work of God's Spirit, whereby, convincing us of our sin and misery, enlightening our minds in the knowledge of Christ, and renewing our wills, he doth persuade and enable us to embrace Jesus Christ, freely offered to us in the gospel

This week our family will praise the Lord for:

4. Do you agree with Phillip Ryken's statement:

"The story of Levi's conversion is really the story of every believer in Christ. This is how God saves sinners. He chooses us, He calls us. By the work of the Holy Spirit, he enables us to turn away from sin and follow Jesus. And as we follow Jesus, we glorify God and proclaim his gospel." - Ryken

HFG Notes & Actions:

5. Discuss the irony of verse 31.
