SERMON OUTLINE

Relating with the World's "Wisdom" 1 Corinthians 3:18-23
April 21, 2013
Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 3:18-23 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. [19] For the wisdom of this world is folly with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," [20] and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." [21] So let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, [22] whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future—all are yours, [23] and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

God's wisdom is hidden from the "wise" of this world. Their "wisdom" is foolishness where it counts- in God's sight.

- Know the truth about the "wisdom" of this world (18-20)

"The 'wise' are unable to effect any solid achievement. The end result of their vaunted wisdom is futility. It is all concerned with things that pass away". - Leon Morris

- It is foolish to align with the world's "wisdom" (21-22)

- You must know Christ to know true wisdom (23)
