Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. What are some ways we can avoid the trap of outward religious action without the inward heart reality?
2. How does the certainty that God does what He says encourage your faith?
3. How does seeing Jesus so full of wrath challenge your stereotypes of Him?
4. What do Jesus' actions show us about his zeal for right worship?

SERMON OUTLINE

The Wrath of Jesus

April 22, 2012

Mark 11:12-22

Pastor Tony Felich

Mark 11:12-22 [12] On the following day, when they came from Bethany, he was hungry. [13] And seeing in the distance a fig tree in leaf, he went to see if he could find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. [14] And he said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard it. [15] And they came to Jerusalem. And he entered the temple and began to drive out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold pigeons. [16] And he would not allow anyone to carry anything through the temple. [17] And he was teaching them and saying to them, "Is it not written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations'? But you have made it a den of robbers." [18] And the chief priests and the scribes heard it and were seeking a way to destroy him, for they feared him, because all the crowd was astonished at his teaching. [19] And when evening came they went out of the city. [20] As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away to its roots. [21] And Peter remembered and said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered." [22] And Jesus answered them, "Have faith in God.

Jesus uses a fig tree as a visual parable of Israel's unbelief in order to encourage faith in His people.

- Jesus cursing the fig tree (12-14)
- Jesus cleansing the temple (15-18)
- Jesus explaining the meaning of both (19-22)

Redeemer Happenings

» Please join the WIC for a work day at the Oasis property on Saturday, May 5th, 2012. This is a special opportunity to work alongside the ladies of Oasis while beautifying the Lord's property. We will leave by bus from Redeemer at 9 a.m. and return to Redeemer no later than 2 p.m. Please RSVP by Monday, April 23rd for this event.

» Oasis Local Summer Mission Trip: There will be an informational meeting May 6th after the 11:00 AM service in Room 43 for those interested in this Church wide local mission trip. We will minister in Kansas City, Kansas through sports camps, VBS, and cleaning/fixing/building things for those in need. This year, our trip is from June 25-29. Ideally families would sign up and minister alongside each other
