Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. What things do you do to keep Christ's sacrifice central in your life?
2. How does our view of Christ as sacrifice differ from so many ("Christians" and non Christians) in our world today?
3. From your perspective, what is so good about Good Friday?
4. How do you keep from simply "going through the motions" when it comes to offering yourself as a living sacrifice?

SERMON OUTLINE

April 5th 2009
The Sacrifice is Brought

Matthew 21:1-11
Tony Felich

The centrality of a right view of Christ's sacrifice for our sins both indicates and promotes spiritual health and maturity

- We need Christ's sacrifice because of our sin
  - Consider the theme of Christ's sacrifice from Genesis to tRevelation
- The centrality of Christ's sacrifice is always an indicator of spiritual health (individually and corporately)
- The centrality of Christ's sacrifice will promote spiritual maturity
  - Why?
  - How?
