SERMON OUTLINE

Salvation in no one else

April 8, 2012

Acts 4:1-12

Pastor Tony Felich

Acts 4:1-12 [1] And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came upon them, [2] greatly annoyed because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection from the dead. [3] And they arrested them and put them in custody until the next day, for it was already evening. [4] But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to about five thousand. [5] On the next day their rulers and elders and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem, [6] with Annas the high priest and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. [7] And when they had set them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" [8] Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, [9] if we are being examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, [10] let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead—by him this man is standing before you well. [11] This Jesus is the stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. [12] And there is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved."

The resurrection of Christ provides the unique qualification necessary to truly be our Savior and the power necessary to gather people to Himself.

- God the Father raising Christ from the dead authenticates the Gospel.
- Despite opposition, the risen Christ will continue to gather people to Himself through the ministry of His Word and Spirit.
- The resurrection emboldens us to be witnesses for Christ through the ministry of His Word and Spirit.

Redeemer Happenings

» Bible Collection: The Local Outreach Committee will continue collecting both English and Spanish Bibles until April 15th. What a powerful way to share God's Word to those in need. The Bibles will be provided to both our current and future ministry partners. Your donation of new and gently used Bibles can be dropped in the "marked" collection box in the coat room.

» The Property & Facilities Stewardship Ministry – Will welcome the new season with an All Church Fellowship and Spring Clean on April 21st. There are many other opportunities to serve by volunteering to be a part-time caretaker or joining the handyman call list. Please see Levi Gillen in the Narthex after the services on Sunday to learn more about this ministry and the call to be faithful stewards of the brick and mortar blessings provided to the Church body
