Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Why is it important the concept of forgiveness be woven through our worship liturgy?
2. How have you been personally challenged in your expectations and attitudes toward others?
3. How does forgiveness factor into your partaking in communion?
4. How have you seen biblical forgiveness in action?

Embracing the Vision: Giving, Serving, Growing Weekly Stewardship Thought

To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. 1 Corinthians 12:7

We learn from Paul that God has blessed each of us with gifts. What are the gifts which God has given you? What are you doing with your gifts? Are you using your gifts in the way God intended? Will you pray that God will help you use your gifts to the best of your ability to better His kingdom here on earth?

SERMON OUTLINE

February 6th 2011 Matthew 18:21-35
Gospel Solutions in Forgiveness Nathan Currey

Matthew 18:23-35 "Therefore the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his servants. [24] When he began to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. [25] And since he could not pay, his master ordered him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. [26] So the servant fell on his knees, imploring him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.' [27] And out of pity for him, the master of that servant released him and forgave him the debt. [28] But when that same servant went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and seizing him, he began to choke him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' [29] So his fellow servant fell down and pleaded with him, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you.' [30] He refused and went and put him in prison until he should pay the debt. [31] When his fellow servants saw what had taken place, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all that had taken place. [32] Then his master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. [33] And should not you have had mercy on your fellow servant, as I had mercy on you?' [34] And in anger his master delivered him to the jailers, until he should pay all his debt. [35] So also my heavenly Father will do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother from your heart."

The gospel provides the ultimate solution for every relationship touched by sin: Forgiveness.
