Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. What's the problem with using shame and guilt manipulation rather than admonition v.14?
2. Share how you have learned to walk the talk through a time of admonition from a spiritual parent.
3. How do we give good admonition? How do we receive admonition well?
4. Gospel power (vs. 19-20) is rooted in forgiving others as we've been forgiven. What are some of the obstacles to "walking" this and how do we overcome them?

SERMON OUTLINE

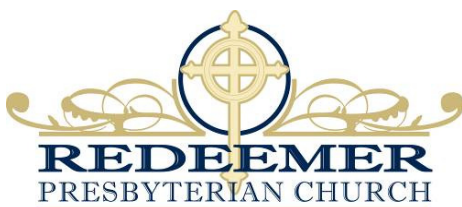

Walk the Talk
May 19, 2013

1 Corinthians 4:14-21
Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 4:14-21 [14] I do not write these things to make you ashamed, but to admonish you as my beloved children. [15] For though you have countless guides in Christ, you do not have many fathers. For I became your father in Christ Jesus through the gospel. [16] I urge you, then, be imitators of me. [17] That is why I sent you Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, to remind you of my ways in Christ, as I teach them everywhere in every church. [18] Some are arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. [19] But I will come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and I will find out not the talk of these arrogant people but their power. [20] For the kingdom of God does not consist in talk but in power. [21] What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or with love in a spirit of gentleness?

In the context of God's gospel of grace, Paul delivers a spiritual spanking in order to spur greater faithfulness in God's people.

- Tough love is sometimes needed for our spiritual good. (14,21)
- God gives spiritual parents to help us follow Christ. (15-17)
- Applying God's Word is "walking the talk". (19-20)
