SERMON OUTLINE

The Scum of the World
May 5, 2013

1 Corinthians 4:6-13
Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 4:6-13 [6] I have applied all these things to myself and Apollos for your benefit, brothers, that you may learn by us not to go beyond what is written, that none of you may be puffed up in favor of one against another. [7] For who sees anything different in you? What do you have that you did not receive? If then you received it, why do you boast as if you did not receive it? [8] Already you have all you want! Already you have become rich! Without us you have become kings! And would that you did reign, so that we might share the rule with you! [9] For I think that God has exhibited us apostles as last of all, like men sentenced to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men. [10] We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You are held in honor, but we in disrepute. [11] To the present hour we hunger and thirst, we are poorly dressed and buffeted and homeless, [12] and we labor, working with our own hands. When reviled, we bless; when persecuted, we endure; [13] when slandered, we entreat. We have become, and are still, like the scum of the world, the refuse of all things.

"It is the authentic Christian experience to be wealthy in Christ and yet be despised by the world". - David Prior

- Our salvation and spiritual growth is all of God's grace (6-7)
- Misunderstanding the source of spiritual growth will result in ridiculous pride (8-10)
- Following Christ has significant costs (9-13)
