SERMON OUTLINE

Men & Women are Different (and that's OK)

1 Cor. 11:1-16

Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ. [2] Now I commend you because you remember me in everything and maintain the traditions even as I delivered them to you. [3] But I want you to understand that the head of every man is Christ, the head of a wife is her husband, and the head of Christ is God. [4] Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonors his head, [5] but every wife who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head, since it is the same as if her head were shaven. [6] For if a wife will not cover her head, then she should cut her hair short. But since it is disgraceful for a wife to cut off her hair or shave her head, let her cover her head. [7] For a man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God, but woman is the glory of man. [8] For man was not made from woman, but woman from man. [9] Neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. [10] That is why a wife ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels. [11] Nevertheless, in the Lord woman is not independent of man nor man of woman; [12] for as woman was made from man, so man is now born of woman. And all things are from God. [13] Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a wife to pray to God with her head uncovered? [14] Does not nature itself teach you that if a man wears long hair it is a disgrace for him, [15] but if a woman has long hair, it is her glory? For her hair is given to her for a covering. [16] If anyone is inclined to be contentious, we have no such practice, nor do the churches of God.

Men and women are wired differently and placed in different roles by their Creator and Savior.

- Following Christ sums up the communal life of Christians. (1 -2)
- God has a certain order for leadership in marriage that partially informs leadership in the Church. (3,7,8,9)
- Paul uses a specific example from Corinth to illustrate a greater principle. (4-7, 10, 13-15)
- While pursuing obedience to our divine roles, we should appreciate each other's special calling. (11-12)
- Division over this issue detracts from our following Christ. (16)
