Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. Why is it so hard to "put down the burger" when someone has a question of conscience (28-30)?
2. How can we prepare to respond well when our liberty is threatened by someone else's conscience?
3. What areas of your life do you tend to compartmentalize and exempt from doing them for the glory of God (31)?
4. What helps you to be conscious throughout the day to do all for the glory of God?

SERMON OUTLINE

Soli Deo Gloria 1 Corinthians 10:23-33
October 20, 2013 Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 10:23-33 [23] "All things are lawful," but not all things are helpful. "All things are lawful," but not all things build up. [24] Let no one seek his own good, but the good of his neighbor. [25] Eat whatever is sold in the meat market without raising any question on the ground of conscience. [26] For "the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof." [27] If one of the unbelievers invites you to dinner and you are disposed to go, eat whatever is set before you without raising any question on the ground of conscience. [28] But if someone says to you, "This has been offered in sacrifice," then do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for the sake of conscience—[29] I do not mean your conscience, but his. For why should my liberty be determined by someone else's conscience? [30] If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of that for which I give thanks? [31] So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. [32] Give no offense to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, [33] just as I try to please everyone in everything I do, not seeking my own advantage, but that of many, that they may be saved.

My life, now in Christ, is not about "me". My life is about seeking the good of others and ultimately, the glory of God.
