APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. How is your outlook on life shaped by the reality that God is not angry with you because of Jesus substitution?
2. How does being accepted and adopted by God go even beyond no condemnation?
3. How does thinking too much of ourselves diminish the spiritual significance of the cross?
4. In what ways can you take further advantage of access to God through Jesus' death?

SERMON OUTLINE

What Can Wash Away my Sin?

October 21, 2012

Mark 15:33-41
Pastor Tony Felich

Mark 15:33-41 [33] And when the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. [34] And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" [35] And some of the bystanders hearing it said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah." [36] And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Wait, let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down." [37] And Jesus uttered a loud cry and breathed his last. [38] And the curtain of the temple was torn in two, from top to bottom. [39] And when the centurion, who stood facing him, saw that in this way he breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!" [40] There were also women looking on from a distance, among whom were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses, and Salome. [41] When he was in Galilee, they followed him and ministered to him, and there were also many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

Salvation comes to us from Christ's finished work on the Cross.

- Jesus' substitutionary death satisfied the just wrath of God (33-37)
- Jesus grants us access to God, by His death (37-39)
