Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. What happens when we confuse happiness (merriment) with peace and joy?
2. Which worldly definition and path to peace has appealed to you?
3. What are some of the "spiritual marshmallows" we are bombarded with today?
4. How does this passage shape your prayer life?

SERMON OUTLINE

October 3rd 2010
The Peace of God

Philippians 4:4-7
Pastor Tony Felich

Philippians 4:4-7 Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. 5 Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; 6 do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Everyone wants peace. The greatest kind of peace is "of God" (7)

How is such peace known? Follow the progression of directives in verses 4-7

- Rejoice regardless of your current circumstances (4)
- Slow down and be reasonable (gentle) (5)
- Confront your anxieties (6a)
- Pray with the right attitude (6b)

Redeemer Happenings

Mowers and Trimmers: Join the Deacons on Saturday morning October 9th for general property upkeep on our spacious property. Come for part or all of the time, 8:30 AM – Noon.

WIC Fall/Winter Bible Studies: will start in October. We will have four different study groups, meeting Tuesday mornings, Wednesday evenings, Thursday mornings, and Saturday mornings. The Tuesday and Wednesday study groups will use "A Book Like No Other" and "Turning on the Light", by Carol Ruvolo. The Thursday and Saturday studies will use "John: That You Might Believe" by Kathleen Nielson. Stop by the WIC Table for more information on each study or download the brochure.
