Sermon notes

A WEEKLY RESOURCE FOR AIDING THE APPLICATION OF THIS SUNDAY'S SERMON AT REDEEMER TO YOUR LIFE.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

1. How can we become "ho-hum" about the gospel?
2. Where does your desire and motivation to share the gospel come from?
3. What are some practical ways you can adapt your life to reach the lost without adapting the message?
4. What blessings of the gospel (v. 23) do you most need to meditate on today?

SERMON OUTLINE

Go Hard for the Gospel
September 8, 2013

1 Corinthians 9:15-27
Pastor Tony Felich

1 Corinthians 9:15-27 But I have made no use of any of these rights, nor am I writing these things to secure any such provision. For I would rather die than have anyone deprive me of my ground for boasting. [16] For if I preach the gospel, that gives me no ground for boasting. For necessity is laid upon me. Woe to me if I do not preach the gospel! [17] For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward, but if not of my own will, I am still entrusted with a stewardship. [18] What then is my reward? That in my preaching I may present the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my right in the gospel. [19] For though I am free from all, I have made myself a servant to all, that I might win more of them. [20] To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though not being myself under the law) that I might win those under the law. [21] To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (not being outside the law of God but under the law of Christ) that I might win those outside the law. [22] To the weak I became weak, that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that by all means I might save some. [23] I do it all for the sake of the gospel, that I may share with them in its blessings. [24] Do you not know that in a race all the runners run, but only one receives the prize? So run that you may obtain it. [25] Every athlete exercises self-control in all things. They do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable. [26] So I do not run aimlessly; I do not box as one beating the air. [27] But I discipline my body and keep it under control, lest after preaching to others I myself should be disqualified.

We are stewards of the best news man could ever know

- As recipients of God's grace in Christ, we are driven to share the gospel! (15-18)
- The gospel is worth surrendering self so others may receive. (19-23)
- Go hard for the gospel, like an athlete training to win. (24-27)
