Isaiah 12

January 3, 2016

Sermon Text	Sermon Outline
Isaiah 12:1 You will say in that day: "I will give thanks to you, O Lord, for though you were angry with me, your anger turned away, that you might comfort me. [2] "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the Lord God is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation." [3] With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. [4] And you will say in that day: "Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the peoples, proclaim that his name is exalted. [5] "Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be made known in all the earth. [6] Shout, and sing for joy, O inhabitant of Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel."	We who drink from the wells of God's salvation are called to make Him known! <ul style="list-style-type: none">I. Sermon Application Questions

Memory verse for 2016:

Isaiah 12:2 "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD GOD is my strength and my song, and he has become my salvation."

What do you think is the significance of the first 3 verses being singular (individual believer) and verses 4-6 being plural (community of believers)?

Discuss the ways knowledge of God's salvation shapes our lives and purpose?

Discuss this statement by J.I. Packer from "Knowing God":

"The world becomes a strange, mad, painful place, and life in it a disappointing and unpleasant business, for those who do not know about God. Disregard the study of God, and you sentence yourself to stumble and blunder through life blindfolded, as it were, with no sense of direction, and no understanding of what surrounds you. This way you can waste your life and lose your soul."

— J.I. Packer, Knowing God
