Sermon Text	Sermon Outline
Acts 20:1 After the uproar ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, and after encouraging them, he said farewell and departed for Macedonia. [2] When he had gone through those regions and had given them much encouragement, he came to Greece. [3] There he spent three months, and when a plot was made against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he decided to return through Macedonia. [4] Sopater the Berean, son of Pyrrhus, accompanied him; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and the Asians, Tychicus and Trophimus. [5] These went on ahead and were waiting for us at Troas, [6] but we sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and in five days we came to them at Troas, where we stayed for seven days. [7] On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and he prolonged his speech until midnight. [8] There were many lamps in the upper room where we were gathered. [9] And a young man named Eutychus, sitting at the window, sank into a deep sleep as Paul talked still longer. And being overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. [10] But Paul went down and bent over him, and taking him in his arms, said, "Do not be alarmed, for his life is in him." [11] And when Paul had gone up and had broken bread and eaten, he conversed with them a long while, until daybreak, and so departed. [12] And they took the youth away alive, and were not a little comforted.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">I. Background of the TextII. Eutychus: an anti-climatic heroIII. Sermon Application Questions

1. Are we required to worship on Sunday? Could we have worship another day of the week and that be sufficient?
2. Does the moving of worship from Saturday to Sunday break the 4th commandment? Why or why not?
3. Why do we take some truths from scripture and make them examples to follow and not others? Why isn't this text an example for home churches and very lengthy sermons?
4. How do we still today look for "signs" to validate the message? Why is it hard for us to simply hear and believe?
5. Discuss the continued importance of the gospel for us today as believers. This is something I think we do not do enough of.
