Freedom And The Incarnation

Romans 8:1-4

December 22, 2019

Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. [2] For the law of the Spirit of life has set you free in Christ Jesus from the law of sin and death. [3] For God has done what the law, weakened by the flesh, could not do. By sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh, [4] in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.	Christ's coming in the flesh, as our representative, provides us with ultimate, eternal life-changing freedom. <ul style="list-style-type: none">I. Freedom from condemnation though ChristII. Freedom from sin's domination through ChristIII. Freedom to obey God through Christ Memory verse for 2019- Acts 10:42-43 [42] And he (Christ) commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. [43] To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.

Sermon Application Questions

Prayer Requests

1. How do Christians fail to live in the freedom purchased by Christ?

This week our family will lift up requests for:

2. What does it mean to be under God's condemnation?

3. Discuss the significance of the incarnation in these verses.

This week our family will praise the Lord for:

4. How is the Trinity involved in our justification and sanctification in these verses?

5. Discuss this section of chapter 20 of the Westminster Confession:
The liberty which Christ hath purchased for believers under the gospel, consists in their freedom from the guilt of sin, the condemning wrath of God, the curse of the moral law; and in their being delivered from this present evil world, bondage to Satan, and dominion of sin, from the evil of afflictions, the sting of death, the victory of the grave, and everlasting damnation; as also in their free access to God, and their yielding obedience unto him, not out of slavish fear, but a child-like love, and willing mind.
