Prelude

Explanation of the Service The Rev. Dr. Anthony Felich
We believe that God, who is perfectly merciful and just, sent His Son to assume that nature in which the disobedience was committed, to make satisfaction in the same, and to bear the punishment of sin by His most bitter passion and death. God therefore manifested His justice against His Son when He laid our iniquities upon Him, and poured forth His mercy and goodness on us, who were guilty and worthy of damnation, out of mere and perfect love, giving His Son unto death for us, and raising Him for our justification, that through Him we might obtain immortality and life eternal. (The Belgic Confession, Article XX)

Choral Introit

Have mercy, Lord, on me regard my bitter weeping, have mercy Lord on me. Look on me, heart and eyes both weep to Thee.

Call to Worship

Isaiah 53:10-11

Pastor: Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him; he has put him to grief;

Congregation: when his soul makes an offering for guilt, he shall see his offspring; he shall prolong his days; the will of the Lord shall prosper in his hand.

Pastor: Out of the anguish of his soul he shall see and be satisfied;

Congregation: by his knowledge shall the righteous one, my servant, make many to be accounted righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities.
