Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Philippians 2:9 Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, [10] so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, [11] and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.	Since the exaltation of Jesus radically impacts every created being we must give him glory and honor now and forever. I. Sermon Application Questions

1. Discuss this statement from Sinclair Ferguson "But there is another penetrating implication of this teaching if the father exalts Jesus to the highest place he will find any lesser honor accorded to His son intolerable. Here then is one way in which we can recognize those whose hearts are really in tune with God's. What do they make of Jesus? If we do not desire to see Him honored then we are at odds with the Father, the reality of our faith in His son is very much in doubt."

2. How does this humility show in our lives? "Paul is presenting the divine paradox, foolish to the natural man, that the way up is down. That a cross precedes a crown. That the road of exaltation by the Father is paved by humble service to others for the Father's glory."

3. How do we make sure that Jesus is the top priority and the center of our life today and every day?

4. How does the future return of Christ fuel your worship now?
