Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Philippians 2:19 I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, so that I too may be cheered by news of you. [20] For I have no one like him, who will be genuinely concerned for your welfare. [21] For they all seek their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ. [22] But you know Timothy's proven worth, how as a son with a father he has served with me in the gospel. [23] I hope therefore to send him just as soon as I see how it will go with me, [24] and I trust in the Lord that shortly I myself will come also.	Being truly devoted to the Gospel produces humble servants who are: <ul style="list-style-type: none">I. Sermon Application Questions

1. How are you currently navigating God's plan for your life? Are you in a season of waiting, trusting His timing rather than striving in your own strength? Or is He calling you to step forward in bold faith? Or perhaps you're wrestling with His direction in another way?

2. What are some specific ways you can show genuine concern and support for those facing difficult seasons—whether in parenting, caring for aging parents, health struggles, grief, financial hardship, or strained relationships? How can you be the hands and feet of Jesus in their lives this week?

3. How can you promote endurance in serving others?

4. In what ways do you see yourself as a vital piece of God's mission? How can you actively use your gifts and role to help proclaim the gospel and make disciples, knowing that every piece—yours included—is essential to the bigger picture?
