A Ram, a Goat, and a Little Horn

Daniel 8

Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Daniel 8:5 As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west across the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground. And the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes. [6] He came to the ram with the two horns, which I had seen standing on the bank of the canal, and he ran at him in his powerful wrath. [7] I saw him come close to the ram, and he was enraged against him and struck the ram and broke his two horns. And the ram had no power to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground and trampled on him. And there was no one who could rescue the ram from his power. [8] Then the goat became exceedingly great, but when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and instead of it there came up four conspicuous horns toward the four winds of heaven. [9] Out of one of them came a little horn, which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the glorious land. [10] It grew great, even to the host of heaven. And some of the host and some of the stars it threw down to the ground and trampled on them. [11] It became great, even as great as the Prince of the host. And the regular burnt offering was taken away from him, and the place of his sanctuary was overthrown. [12] And a host will be given over to it together with the regular burnt offering because of transgression, and it will throw truth to the ground, and it will act and prosper. [13] Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the one who spoke, "For how long is the vision concerning the regular burnt offering, the transgression that makes desolate, and the giving over of the sanctuary and host to be trampled underfoot?" [14] And he said to me, "For 2,300 evenings and mornings. Then the sanctuary shall be restored to its rightful state."	Though evil and rebellion rage on, God's sovereign hand turns every plan of man and Satan toward His eternal purpose of redemption and restoration in Christ. I. Sermon Application Questions

1. Joyce Baldwin states “the sounds of clashing horns show the brittle nature of the powers of this world.” How does it truth influence our perspective on current affairs at home and abroad?

2. Antiochus’s offenses are especially focused on worship. What does that suggest about where the real frontline of spiritual conflict lies for the people of God?

3. Daniel is physically sick and deeply troubled after seeing a vision that God Himself gave and controls. What does that tension (God is sovereign, yet Daniel is distressed) teach us about realistic Christian hope in the face of evil?

4. Reflecting on the truth of Genesis 50:20, how can you and the Church live faithfully in exile knowing Christ's victory sustains you through current raging rebellion?
