Colossians 1:21-23

March 22, 2026

Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Colossians 1:21 And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, [22] he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him, [23] if indeed you continue in the faith, stable and steadfast, not shifting from the hope of the gospel that you heard, which has been proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, became a minister.	The gospel rocks our world, then steadies our hearts. I. Realize it's worse than you thought but better than you can imagine II. We must rightly understand reconciliation III. Only when we lean on Christ, will we grow steady Memory verses for 2026- Ephesians 4:1-3 [1] I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you To walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, [2] with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, [3] eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Sermon Application Questions

1. Where are you most tempted to define yourself by cultural labels or your own feelings rather than by God's Word—and what truth from this passage do you most need to remind yourself of this week?

2. Is it harder for you to see your spiritual condition as worse than you expected (without Christ) or better than you ever imagined (in Christ)?

3. How does the reconciliation Jesus made work? How is it all of grace and why does that matter?

4. How does holding fast to the gospel of grace steady your heart?
