Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
Daniel 11:2 “And now I will show you the truth. Behold, three more kings shall arise in Persia, and a fourth shall be far richer than all of them. And when he has become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the kingdom of Greece. [32] He shall seduce with flattery those who violate the covenant, but the people who know their God shall stand firm and take action. [33] And the wise among the people shall make many understand, though for some days they shall stumble by sword and flame, by captivity and plunder. [34] When they stumble, they shall receive a little help. And many shall join themselves to them with flattery, [35] and some of the wise shall stumble, so that they may be refined, purified, and made white, until the time of the end, for it still awaits the appointed time. 12:1 “At that time shall arise Michael, the great prince who has charge of your people. And there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation till that time. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone whose name shall be found written in the book. [2] And many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. [3] And those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky above; and those who turn many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.	Our God is sovereign over human history and will deliver His people from momentary affliction, even death, to eternal glory. I. Sovereignty of God in history II. Certainty of God in his Word III. Salvation of God in the end Memory verses for 2026- Ephesians 4:1–3 [1] I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you To walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, [2] with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, [3] eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

Sermon Application Questions	Prayer Requests
1. The history in Daniel 11 isn't the point but the evidence of God's sovereignty. Is it harder for you to believe that God governs world events or that he governs the small details of your life? Why?	This week our family will lift up requests for:
2. The sermon mentioned that we often treat God's sovereignty as a fact and not a reality. Where is there a gap in your life between what you know to be true about God and how you're actually living?
3. Which hit closest: reading the Bible about God rather than hearing him, praying at set times rather than in constant dependence, or knowing the gospel rather than preaching it to yourself? Explain.	This week our family will praise the Lord for:
4. Verse 35 says God's purpose in persecution is our sanctification. Is there something hard in your life, where you can begin to see that? And is there something where you can't see it yet?	HFG Notes & Actions:
5. Daniel says God's sovereignty should make us active, not passive (wise and witness). In what ways and with whom can you be more active in your life?	Next HFG meeting is:
