SERMON APPLICATION SHEET FOR:

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Rev. Dr. Daniel Doriani | Resurrection | November 8, 2026

Sermon Text	Sermon Notes
1 Corinthians 15:1 Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, [2] and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. [3] For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, [4] that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, [5] and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. [6] Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. [7] Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. [8] Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. [9] For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. [10] But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. [11] Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.	I. Paul's gospel is preached and received; by it we stand and are saved (1-2) II. The gospel record helps us remain faithful, lest we believe in vain (2-7) III. The gospel of the resurrection reshapes our very being (8-11) IV. Four practical responses to the message of the resurrection Memory verses for 2026- Ephesians 4:1–3 [1] I therefore, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you To walk in a manner worthy of the calling to which you have been called, [2] with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, [3] eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
